Dear Val

Further to our phone conversation yesterday, I am now attaching

- (1) a letter requesting formal permission for the inclusion of the 'Let's Talk' Professional Code of Conduct as an appendix to our book, and
- (2) an application for permission form from Pearson Education Australia Pty Limited.

I look forward to receiving a copy of the Code, together with the completed permission application form by 18 February.

Many thanks

Dear Val

As I explained yesterday on the 'phone, I am writing a book (with a colleague, Mieke Brandon) titled Mediating with Families: Making the Difference, which examines the practice and skills of mediators in dealing with a range of family disputes.

I have just seen the latest Mediation News and was delighted to see the published version of the Professional Code of Conduct developed by 'Let's Talk'. In one of our chapters, we discuss professional issues for mediators, and I'm sure that the Code would add richness to our text.

I am writing as a follow-up to my phone call yesterday, requesting formal permission to include the Professional Code of Conduct developed by 'Let's Talk' as one of a number of appendixes in Mediating with Families: Making the Difference. There would, of course, be acknowledgment of the source.

Although you have given us verbal permission, as Pearson Education Australia (our publisher) requires the permission to be formally granted, I am attaching their copyright clearance form. If your committee agrees, could you please complete this, and return it to me at the above address, together with a copy of the Professional Code of Conduct which we could be reproduced. Because the book is already at the copy-editing stage, I will need to receive the material from you by 18 February, so that it can be given to Pearson by our deadline.

Should there be some difficulty in your committee agreeing to the use of the material, or if there is any further information you need, please contact me on (02) 99068886; Mobile: 0414863903; email: lfisher@ozemail.com.au.

Yours sincerely
