

You are invited to attend a workshop on Transformative Mediation

Unique opportunity

For developed mediators, currently working in the field, a chance to work with

Baruch Bush and Jo Folger

authors of The Promise of Mediation
in May, 1999

Advance bookings essential

Natasha Serventy and Michelle Brenner, in association with ADRA, are bringing Folger and Bush to Sydney to deliver a two day workshop on Transformative Mediation, on the 17th and 18th of May, 1999.

Venue: Parliament House, Sydney. (9.00 am to 5.00 pm.)

This workshop will centre around the methods of empowerment and recognition in mediation described in their well known book. This is an unusual opportunity, as they will only be delivering one workshop in Sydney.

The workshop has been designed with experienced mediators, especially those who are trainers, in mind. We have deliberately kept the fee to attend as low as possible, so as to cover costs only. To ensure maximum opportunity for involvement and feedback, the numbers are strictly limited to 20. Thus, this is an unparalleled chance to attend a best practice workshop by two leaders in the field at a remarkably low cost.

Fee: $600.00

(Fee includes Manual, lunch and morning and afternoon teas.)

Confirmation must be made by telephone to M Brenner on 9365 0661 before October 31. A deposit of $100 must be paid by November 16th, and receipts will be forwarded. Please make all cheques out to ADRA, and post to M. Brenner, 5/19 Ramsgate Avenue, Bondi Beach 2026. Places will be allocated in order of receipt of deposit. The full amount is payable by the end of February, 1999.
